

Additional Resources

The above lists of preservation professionals and National Parks Service Preservation Briefs serve as an important starting point for property owners of historic buildings to begin projects to restore, renovate, and update their structures. By no means do these lists cover every aspect of historic preservation work, nor are these lists meant to represent endorsements by the City of Washington. Instead, property owners should consider this information, as well as additional information, when beginning a project. Information above, as well as additional information about historic preservation work and professionals in the area, can be found at the following websites:

Landmarks Illinois: <http://www.landmarks.org/>

Illinois Restoration Resources: http://www.landmarks.org/restoration\_resources/database\_search.htm

National Park Service: <https://www.nps.gov/index.htm>

Preservation Briefs: <https://www.nps.gov/tps/how-to-preserve/briefs.htm>

Brick Industry Association: <http://www.gobrick.com/>

Technical Notes: <http://www.gobrick.com/Technical-Notes>

West Central Illinois Building and Construction Trades Council: <http://www.westcentralbtc.org/>

Greater Peoria Contractors and Suppliers Association, Inc.: <http://www.gpcsa.org/>

Bloomington Old House Society: <http://www.oldhousesociety.org/>